128TH ST SW Car vs. Pedestrian Collision

South Everett

Approximately 4:53 p.m. a vehicle traveling westbound on 128th Street SW was stopped for a red light, when the light turned green it continued westbound and struck a pedestrian. The male pedestrian was treated and transported to the hospital by Fire District 1 medical personnel. The female driver was treated and released at the scene. The Snohomish County Sheriff's Office Collision Investigation Unit (CIU) is conducting the investigation.

At this time there is no additional information about the people involved in the collision. There has been no indication that speed, weather, drugs or alcohol played any part in this incident.
