Elderly man struck by bus in Warm Beach dies of injuries

An 86-year-old man who was crossing Marine Drive in Stanwood last month when he was struck by a Community Transit bus died of his injuries on May 22.

The man was in a motorized wheelchair and was crossing Marine Drive near the Warm Beach Senior Community Center when the CT bus turning right onto Marine Drive from the senior center struck him in the crosswalk. The collision happened about 11:45 a.m. April 7.

Sheriff's collision investigators expect to complete the investigation later this week following the completion of an autopsy by the Snohomish County Medical Examiner's Office. No criminal charges against the CT driver are anticipated.
