Man arrested in connection with Lynnwood convenience store robbery

Lynnwood Police arrested a 26-year-old Lynnwood man on Sept. 9 for the Aug. 19 robbery of a convenience store in the 6100 block of 176th St. SW in the city of Lynnwood. The man was arrested without incident at his home and booked into the Snohomish County Jail on one count of first-degree robbery.

Snohomish County Sheriff's detectives say that same man is a suspect in two other Lynnwood-area convenience store robberies they're investigating – one on Aug. 8 on Cypress Way and one on Sept. 5 on 164th St. SW.

In all three cases, the suspect displayed a large knife and left with an undisclosed amount of cash.

The man arrested by Lynnwood Police has not yet been arrested for the other two robberies being investigated by the Sheriff's Office; those two cases remain under investigation. But sheriff's detectives say they are no longer asking the public to help them identify the suspect.
